SOCIAL SERVICE WORK INTERESTS WASHINGTON

Exhibits Showing Conditions in District of Columbia
Will Be Continued Next Week.

Popular interest in the social service exhibit now being conducted by the Men and Religion Forward Movement in Epiphany parish hall has been so great that the social service committee of the movement has decided to continue it over Monday and Tuesday of next week. The fact that all Washington is alive to the importance of social service work has been shown in the crowds that have thronged the hall daily.

The exhibit yesterday attracted large numbers of men and women throughout the day. The interest in this display, together with that manifested in the social service institutes conducted by the movement, indicating that a large number of men are more deeply interested in this phase of the movement's activity than in any other of its aspects. The exhibit is a comprehensive one, covering practically the entire field of social endeavor in Washington, and occupies two large rooms on the ground floor of the parish hall.

As illustrated by charts and diagrams, the facts brought out by the social service workers of the Men and Religion Forward Movement take on a significance that does not appear so readily when they are presented in the form of statistics. One of the most striking charts compares the number of churches in the District with the number of saloons, there being 200 of the former and 512 of the latter.

According to the data obtained by the committee, there were in Washington last year 24,000 arrests, of which number 72.6 per cent were men, 16.7 per cent women, and 10.7 per cent children. The crimes and misdemeanors for which the arrests were made are shown graphically by means of a series of charts, and a large amount of detail is given regarding them.

A chart which has perhaps excited as much interest as any in the entire exhibit is that which shows the relation of living cost to salary in Washington. The salaries of Government clerks have not been raised, as a whole, for a much longer period than that covered by the investigation recorded on the chart, which includes the years 1902 to 1911, inclusive. The average cost of commodities during that period is taken as the standard for comparison. The data show that although in 1902 the purchasing power of a salary was 111 per cent of the average for the year, it decreased to 75 per cent, and is now only 81 per cent. In other words, according to these data, a dollar today will buy only about 22 per cent as much as it would in 1902.

A number of charts have been prepared to show the causes of death in Washington, and these indicate that there has in general been a diminishing of the death rate within the last ten years. It is now 21.96 per thousand, whereas the birth rate is 14.7 per thousand—both figures applying only to the white population. The death rate of children under five years of age has decreased from 3.36 per cent to 2.27 per cent, and that of children under one year of age from 1.05 per cent to 0.77 per cent. Investigations of the committee disclose the fact that certain diseases must be reported to the health officials have been well taken care of, and that such diseases have been markedly less dangerous since supervision has been attempted. Because they have declined in importance as factors in the death rate, the non-reported diseases have shown a relative increase in the number of deaths they cause. The inference drawn by the committee is that if all diseases were reported they could be guarded against, and as a result the decline in the death rate would be evened.

A remarkable condition is indicated by

Gaw. About fifty additions have been made to the church as a result of these meetings. Pastor Washington will preach to-morrow morning and evening, and the regular services of the church will be resumed.

"The Call of the Christ" is the theme upon which Pastor B. D. Gaw will preach to-morrow morning at the West Washington Baptist Church; and in the evening he will speak on "Cities of Refuge." Twelve will be baptized at the service to-morrow evening. Twenty-four persons have been added to the church in the last month.

The church attendance charts and other charts dealing with church activities, in that they show the Episcopal denomination to have 2.7 per cent of all the church buildings in the city, though it ranks comparatively low in the number of worshippers. Third of the church members of Washington, 86.4 per cent are Protestants, 11.4 per cent Catholics, and 2.2 per cent Jewish, according to the chart.

More than one-third of the labor unions in Washington meet in halls connected with saloons, according to the data obtained by the committee. Of the saloons of the city, 20 per cent serve free lunch, 8 per cent have tables attached, and 3 per cent are connected with hotels. The number of saloons in proportion to the number of citizens is highest in the business sections of Georgetown and Washington, the proportions being respectively 1 to 132 and 1 to 133. The average number of persons to each saloon for the city is 1.3, approximately as throughout the residential sections.

The committee has made a special study of the efforts being made to care for the children and young people of the city outside school hours. Through playgrounds, settlement houses, school gymnasiums it is estimated that from 1,500 to 2,000 of the children of school age are reached at different seasons of the year.

In the second part of the exhibit are shown a number of photographs of conditions of labor among sweat-shop workers and of housing in the poorest tenement districts. Articles of apparel made by sweat-shop workers are displayed, each bearing a label indicating the price the worker receives for it. Other photographs show the work of playgrounds and other agencies put into effect by social service workers.

Candidate for Nobel Prize.

The great service rendered by the Christian Endeavor movement in the cause of peace and international arbitration through its literature, its conventions, its world brotherhood, and its vast membership led Congressman McCall, of Massachusetts, to suggest some time since that the Christian Endeavor Union be a candidate for the Nobel prize for 1912.

Former Vice President Fairbanks, President Cabot, of the American board, and others have endorsed the suggestion, and William Jennings Bryan has written to members of the Nobel committee in Europe to the same effect.

President Clark, making the trip to Europe, will spend some time in London, with special time to be spent at Philadelphia, the first Christian mission in Europe. He was recently received by the British monarch, King George V, in Athens, and has visited in Endeavor's interest, Russia, Poland, Germany, Hungary, and Romania.

Rev. A. R. Johns, rector of Christ Church, Washington parish, has been granted leave of absence for eight months from his clerical and parochial duties, to take effect April 1. His resignation adds another to the list of suburban and country parishes which are or will be looking for rectors.

Rev. William Wilkinson, Wall street preacher, has been heard in this city every day this week at Epiphany Church at the Capital Baptist Church, Northwest. There will be the usual preaching services at the Columbia Baptist Church at 11 a. m.

An announced in this column last week, Dr. George H. Crutcher, of Jackson, Tenn., the member of the evangelistic staff of the Southern Baptist Convention, chosen to act as temporary pastor at the Fifth Church in the absence of Rev. J. E. Briggs, will assume his pastoral duties by preaching at both morning and evening services of the Fifth Church to-morrow. All the regular services of the church will be continued. The prayer meeting next week, however, will be held on Wednesday, to give way to Thursday to a celebration of Washington's birthday, by the Barnard and Phillips classes of the Sunday school.

Twelve hundred people, the largest congregation, it is said, ever assembled on Capitol Hill, gathered last Sunday evening at the Metropolitan Church to hear the closing services of the Western Jubilee in the two weeks service held there. Sixty-seven persons have been received into the church as a result of these meetings, thus justifying the prediction made last week that about seventy would be added to the church membership.

Pastor J. C. Ball will preach to-morrow morning on the theme: "The Men of the Metropolitan for the Man of Galilee." In the evening he will preach on "The Restfulness of Christianity." A number of persons will be baptized at the evening service. On Tuesday and Wednesday evenings at seven o'clock the Ladies Aid Society will give dinner, the proceeds of which will be devoted to the church.

The second week of the revival meetings at the Maryland Avenue Church, in which the pastor, Rev. P. B. Watlington, has been assisted by Rev. B. D. Gaw, of the West Washington Church, closed last night with a sermon by Rev. Mr.

owned and published by a corporation, of which the Rev. Dr. Douglas, formerly rector of St. John's Church, this city, is the leading figure. Dr. Douglas has contracted to buy the paper upon the advice and with the cooperation of a number of clergymen and laymen, who exemplify the various schools of thought in the church.

Rev. Herbert Scott Smith's subject to-morrow in his special course he is preaching at St. Margaret's Church on Sunday nights is "The problem of race." Of all our problems this is about the most difficult. One almost despair of a satisfactory solution of it.

Rev. Sherman Coolidge, an Arapahoe Indian, delivered a missionary address last Sunday morning in St. Thomas' Church, on work among the Indians.

The regular monthly meeting of the Sunday School Institute will be held February 20, at 7:30 p. m., in Epiphany parish hall.

Canon De Vries will be the first speaker, his subject being: "The life of Christ in relation to problems of faith and life." The second appointed speaker is the Rev. Dr. W. Van Fossan, rector of Trinity parish, who will speak on "Practical methods of securing Sunday school attendance." Three-minute discussions will follow each subject.

The March meeting, as usual in Lent, will be held on Thursday (not Tuesday), March 2.

Next Sunday will be the regular communion day for the Sodality of the Children of Mary. They will receive Holy Communion at the 8 o'clock mass and meet for the recitation of their office at 10 o'clock in the afternoon. The solemn high mass will be celebrated by the Rev. William J. Carroll at 10 o'clock. Rev. John McNamara will preach. As is his usual custom, Rev. William T. Russell will answer the questions that have been placed in the question box.

Special services will be held in St. Patrick's Church during the season of Lent. Lenten services will be held on Wednesday, Friday, and Saturday at 8 o'clock. On Wednesday and Saturday at 10 o'clock. On Friday at 8 o'clock. A short instruction will be given after the 8 o'clock mass. Next Wednesday being Ash Wednesday, the Rev. Dr. Russell will deliver a special course of sermons at these services.

To-morrow the Children of Mary Sodality of St. Paul's Church will receive Holy Communion in a body at the 10 o'clock mass.

The sanctuary choir, under the direction of E. T. Winchester, will render the music at the 10 o'clock mass. The choir of officers, held last Sunday in the assembly hall, of the Children of Mary Sodality, the following members were elected: Miss Edith Downie, president; Miss Nellie Long, vice-president; and Miss Helen Zimmerman, secretary.

Vespers will be sung in St. Mary's to-morrow at 4 o'clock, the hour for this service having been changed from 7:30 o'clock.

St. Mary's Holy Name Society was represented at the Holy Name Union meeting in Baltimore last Sunday. St. Mary's is the youngest branch of the Holy Name Union in the diocese at present, but gives indications of becoming a vigorous force in Washington Catholic circles.

St. Joseph's parish hall will be the scene of a grand supper and parish reunion on Shrove Tuesday night, the eve of Ash Wednesday. The supper and reunion is an annual event in St. Joseph's parish—an occasion on which the members of the congregation are brought closely together. The affair is a new and strengthened, and the life of the parish given stimulus. The affair is one which is annually looked forward to not only by the people of St. Joseph's, but by Catholics throughout the city.

The following are in charge of the arrangements: Mrs. Nellie Hughes, Mrs. Laniel, Mrs. Fuller, Mrs. Keane, Mrs. Holley, Mrs. Klein, Mrs. Barnes, Misses Breckinridge, Howard, Lynch, and Byrne, and Messrs. Quill, Curtin, Schaefer, Collins, Oehman, and Spricklemeyer.

Rev. Joseph E. Williams, of Clinton, N. C., will officiate to-morrow at Christ Church, Rockville, which, since Dr. Packard's death, is without a rector.

Mrs. William C. Rives, of Annapolis parish, is to conduct a mission study class every Tuesday morning during Lent at 11 o'clock. She will conduct the class at her residence, 102 Rhode Island avenue. The ladies of Annapolis parish are all invited, but a specially hearty welcome will be given to those who say they are not interested in missions, who are particularly invited to attend.

The first of the five Lenten lectures to be given under the auspices of the Churchmen's League will be delivered in Epiphany Church by Bishop G. Meit Villanova on the special subject of "The worldwide responsibilities of churchmen."

With reference to the unpleasantness in connection with Christ Church, Navy Yard, its parish hall and a company of the "Boys' Brigade," there are two facts which seem to have been lost sight of. The first is that no organization in any parish can exist when the rector objects to it, with the sole exception of the vestry. And the next is that the rector's word is the law in the parish hall by such organizations as do exist in fact. The rector's authority in this matter is symbolized by the hanging of the keys on the day of his installation. From confusion arises from its not being generally known that the position of an Episcopal rector is entirely unlike that of the pastors of other religious bodies, except, of course, the Roman Catholic.

The New York Churchmen, which used to be very extensively throughout the church and still commands the attention of many members of the church in Washington and elsewhere, is to be

Methodist

At Foundry Methodist Episcopal Church on Sunday morning, Rev. W. P. Thibault, D. D., will preach on the theme, "Life's supreme object and inspiration." In the evening Rev. N. H. Holmes, D. D., will preach on "Abraham Lincoln: called of God to service." Beginning April 1, music for the morning service of Foundry Church will be furnished by a quartet choir and for the evening by a quartet with chorus.

Dr. Montgomery will speak at the Metropolitan Memorial Church Sunday morning on "The sublimest word ever spoken." In the evening he will speak on "George Washington—the first American." The topic of his address will be "The Biblical conception of nature."

On Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, Rev. Joseph M. Gray, pastor of Hamilton Methodist Episcopal Church, will preach from the theme "Victory on the heights." In the evening at 8 o'clock, the subject will be discussed by the Rev. Dan B. Brumfield, D. D., of the Northwestern Christian Advocate, of Chicago, Ill.

The ladies of Hamilton will give on Friday, February 23, a literary, musical and recital in the lecture room of the church. Miss Hattie P. Marine, one of the best known and most popular readers of Hamilton, will be assisted by Miss Mary Belle Fisher, the well-known contralto of Washington musical circles.

Western Presbyterian Church has shown a gratifying growth in all departments of its work under the pastorate of the Rev. J. Harvey Dunham. At the recent communion service at the church thirteen new members were added, and the chapter of the Presbyterian Brotherhood, connected with the church now has a membership of 100 members. The Sunday school has an enrollment of 200, with an average attendance of 180. More than 100 men and boys were present to hear a lecture given by the Rev. J. H. Cooper, general secretary of the Y. M. C. A., last week at the church.

The Rev. Wallace Radcliffe will deliver to-morrow evening another of his series of lectures on the general topic "Political portraits" in New York Avenue Presbyterian Church. The special topic of the lecture will be "A father of his country." The musical program will include selections from Rossini's "Stabat Mater" and Handel's "Ode, Had I Jubah's Lyre."

At the Church of the Covenant, Dr. Wood will preach. The 2:30 o'clock musical service, led by the double quartet, will include: Anthem, "I Waited for the Lord," Mendelssohn; solo, "Jehovah, Guide Us," Mozart (Mr. Moore); hymn, "O Lord of the Harvest," Sullivan (Mr. Henney). The 7:30 o'clock musical service, led by the Evening Church Choir, Otto T. Stumm, director; Harvey Murray, organist; Charles T. Thompson, bass, will include: Solo, "The People That Walked in Darkness," (Muriel); chorus, "The Watching Over Israel" (Elijah); solo, "Lord God of Abraham" (Elijah).

At the Ninth Street Christian Church, Ninth and D streets northeast, the pastor, George A. Miller, will preach to-morrow morning and evening. He has returned from Johnstown, Pa., where he was assisting in the Men and Religion Forward Movement. He reports that the movement was greatly stirred by the campaign. On Sunday night Mr. Miller will continue his travel sermons in Bible lands, the subject being "Samaritan and false worship."

The Sunday morning service at the Vermont Avenue Christian Church will be of unusual interest. The pastor, the Rev. Charles Wilby, will deliver a sermon on the text, "Jesus' love," and an urgent invitation to all the members to attend has been sent out. The general public is also cordially invited. The quartet will render a special program.

The formal installation of the Rev. Henry Anstadt as pastor of Memorial Evangelical Lutheran Church, in Thomas circle, will take place at the evening service to-morrow. The Rev. Charles P. Wilcox, pastor of Keller Memorial Lutheran Church, will preach at the morning service, his address taking the form of a charge to the congregation. An elaborate musical program has been arranged. In the evening, following a sermon by the Rev. Luther Kuhlman, professor of Biblical theology at Lutheran Theological Seminary, Gettysburg, Pa., the Rev. John T. Ruddle, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, will conduct the installation service.

On Monday evening the congregation will give a reception from 8 to 10:30 p. m. in the chapel to Mr. and Mrs. Anstadt.

Rev. Henry P. Anstadt has had a long experience as pastor and as editor of Lutheran publications. He is a graduate of Gettysburg Lutheran Seminary, and for several years was pastor of a Lutheran church in Gettysburg.

Comparison of the Biblical and scientific interpretations of nature will be made in an address to be delivered to-morrow evening in Mount Pleasant Church.
